

Geneva,
March 7th
2012

OICA

Press Conference

Patrick Blain, President

Organisation Internationale des Constructeurs d'Automobiles
International Organization of Motor Vehicle Manufacturers

World auto production 2011, 2012

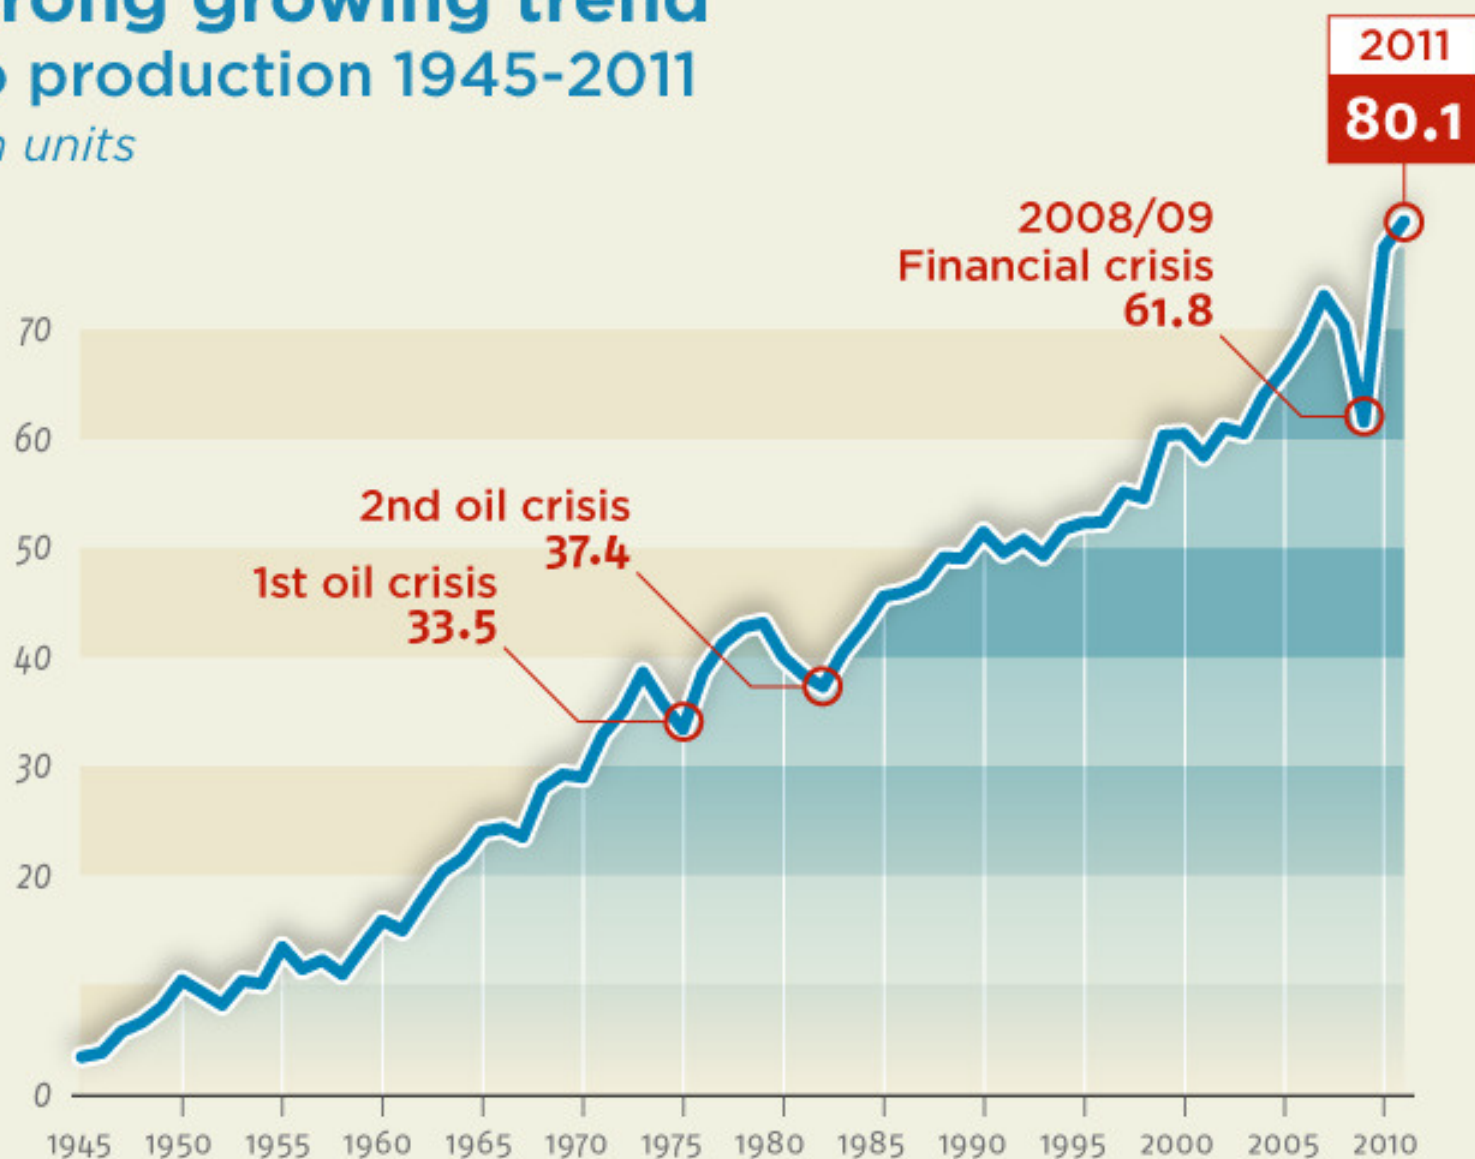

Trends and future challenges

- Foreword: OICA status, statistics and communications
- Auto production 1945-2011
- Auto production by continents
- World auto markets and parks 2011
- Conclusion: OICA's activities

A strong growing trend

Auto production 1945-2011

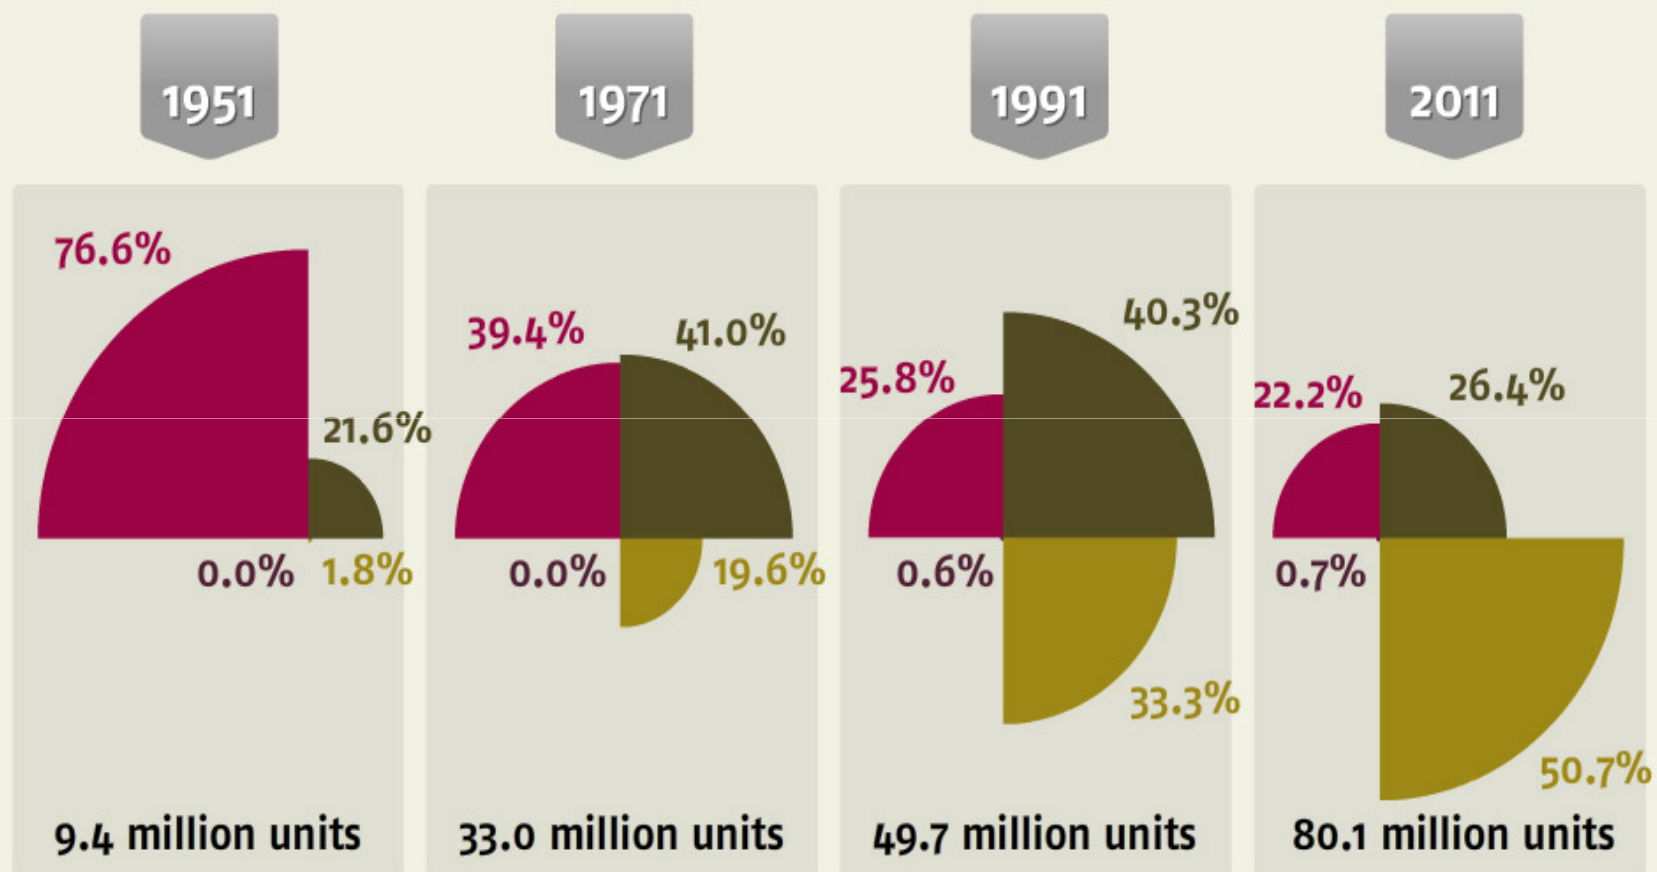

Million units

An evolution with four steps

Auto production by continent

In percentage and million units

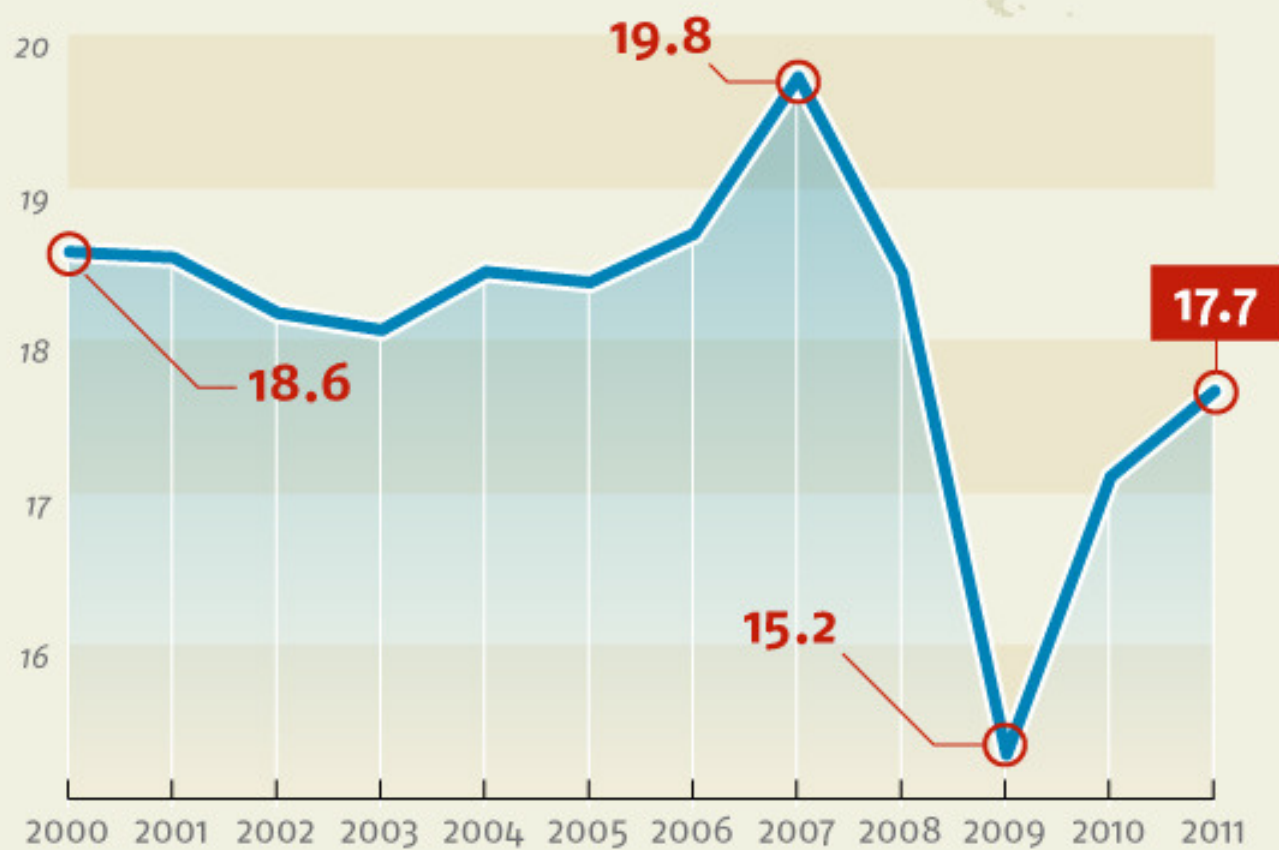

A ten years 2011

Auto production by geographical zones

European Union 27 countries

Million units

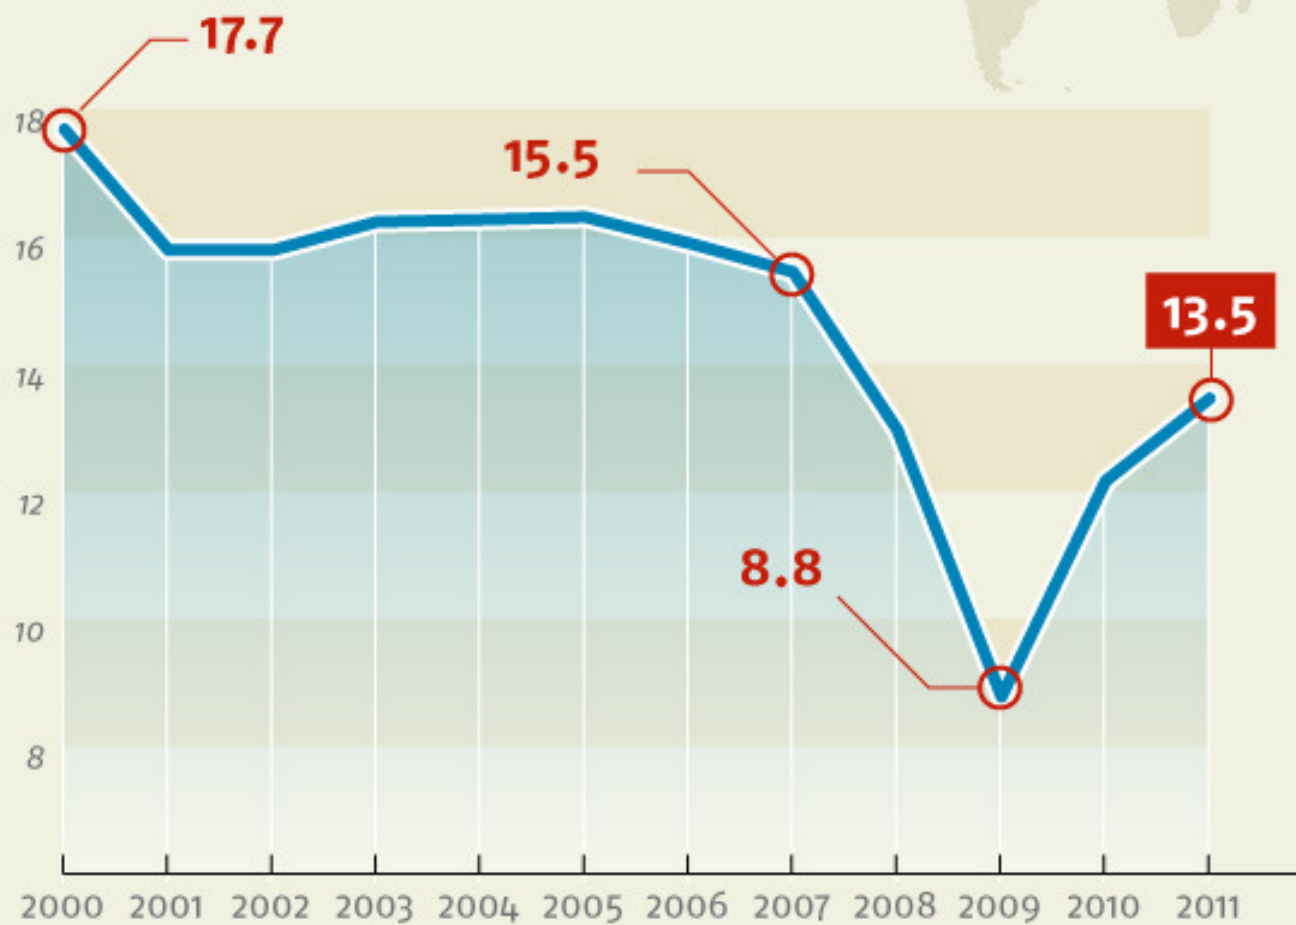

Other European Countries, Russia and Turkey

Million units

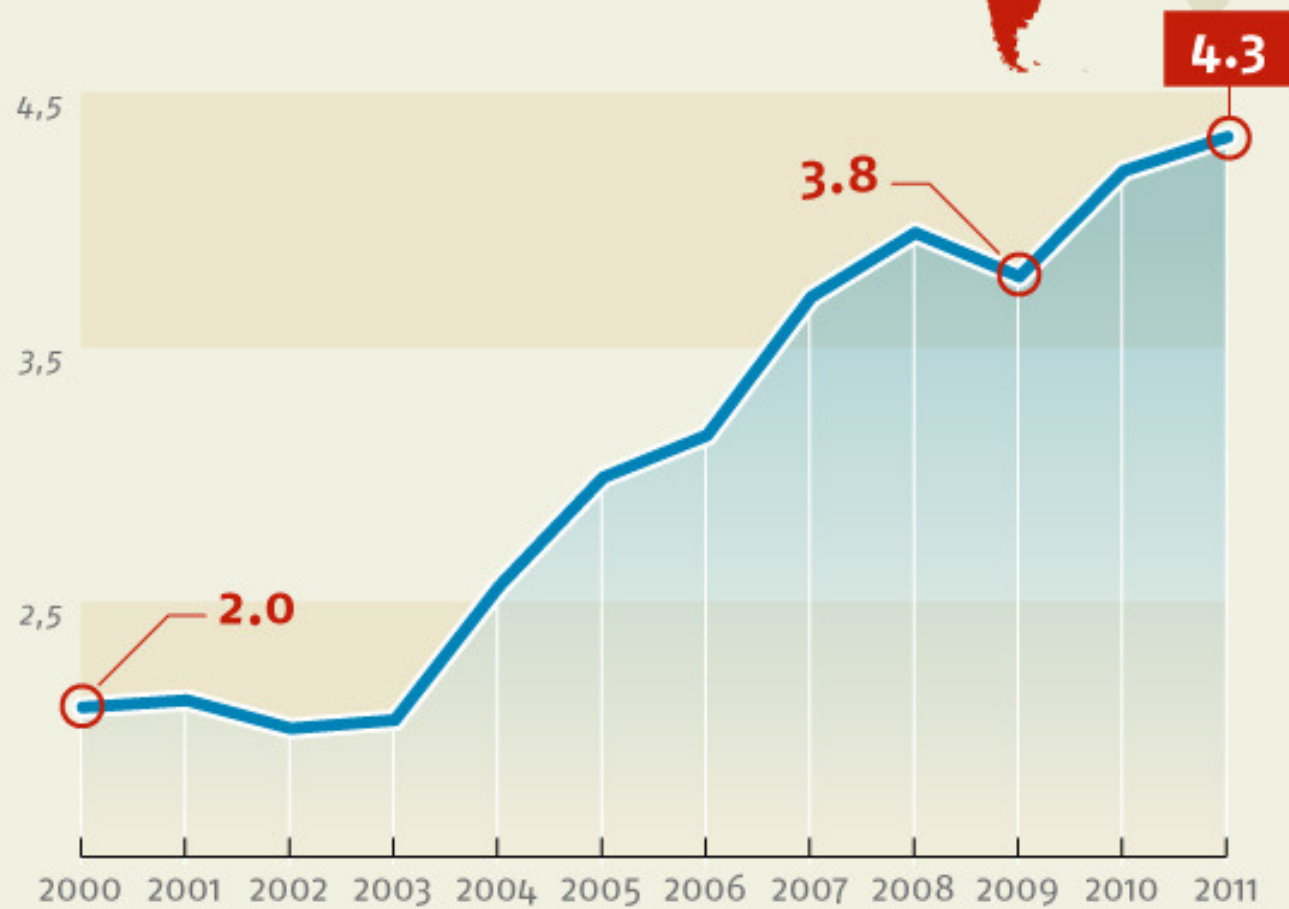

North America (NAFTA)

Million units

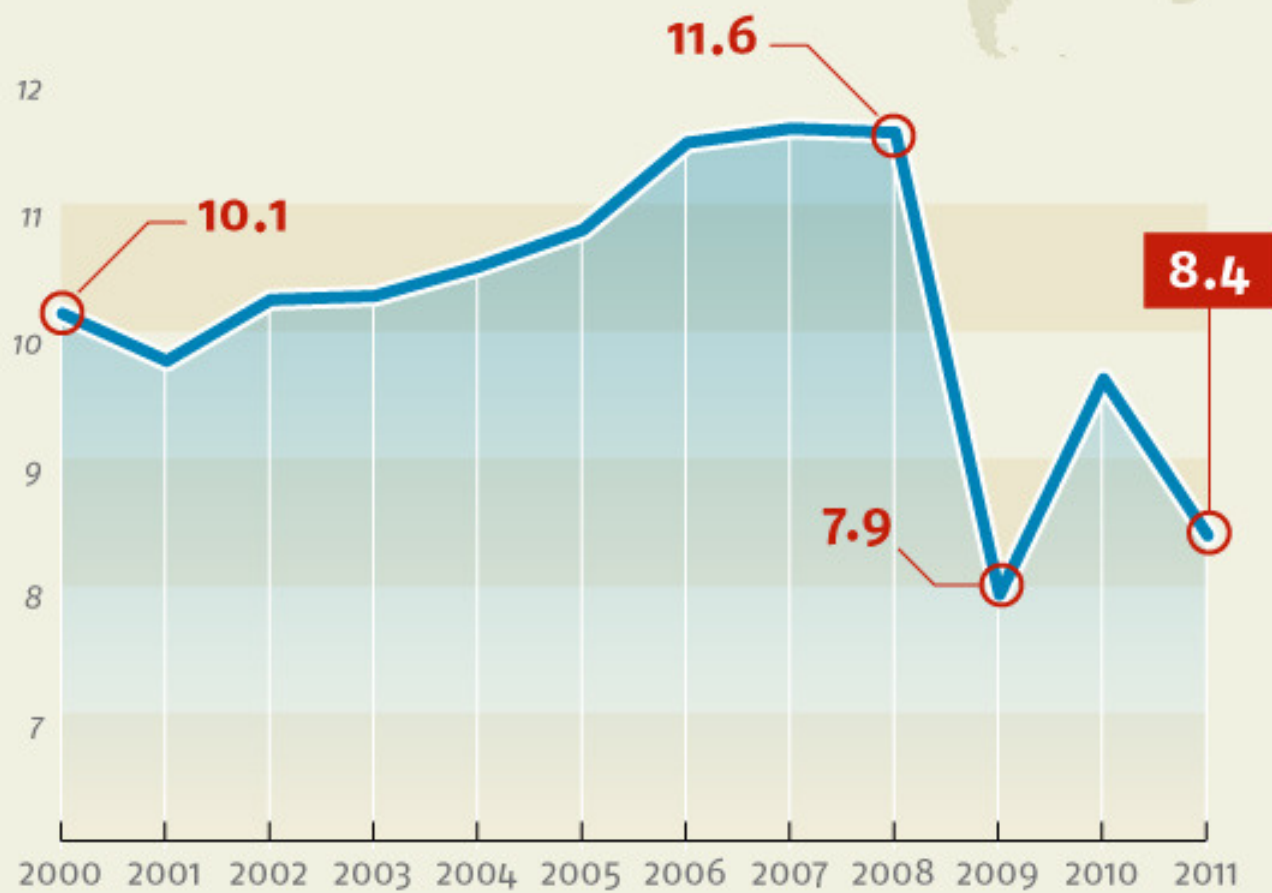

South America

Million units

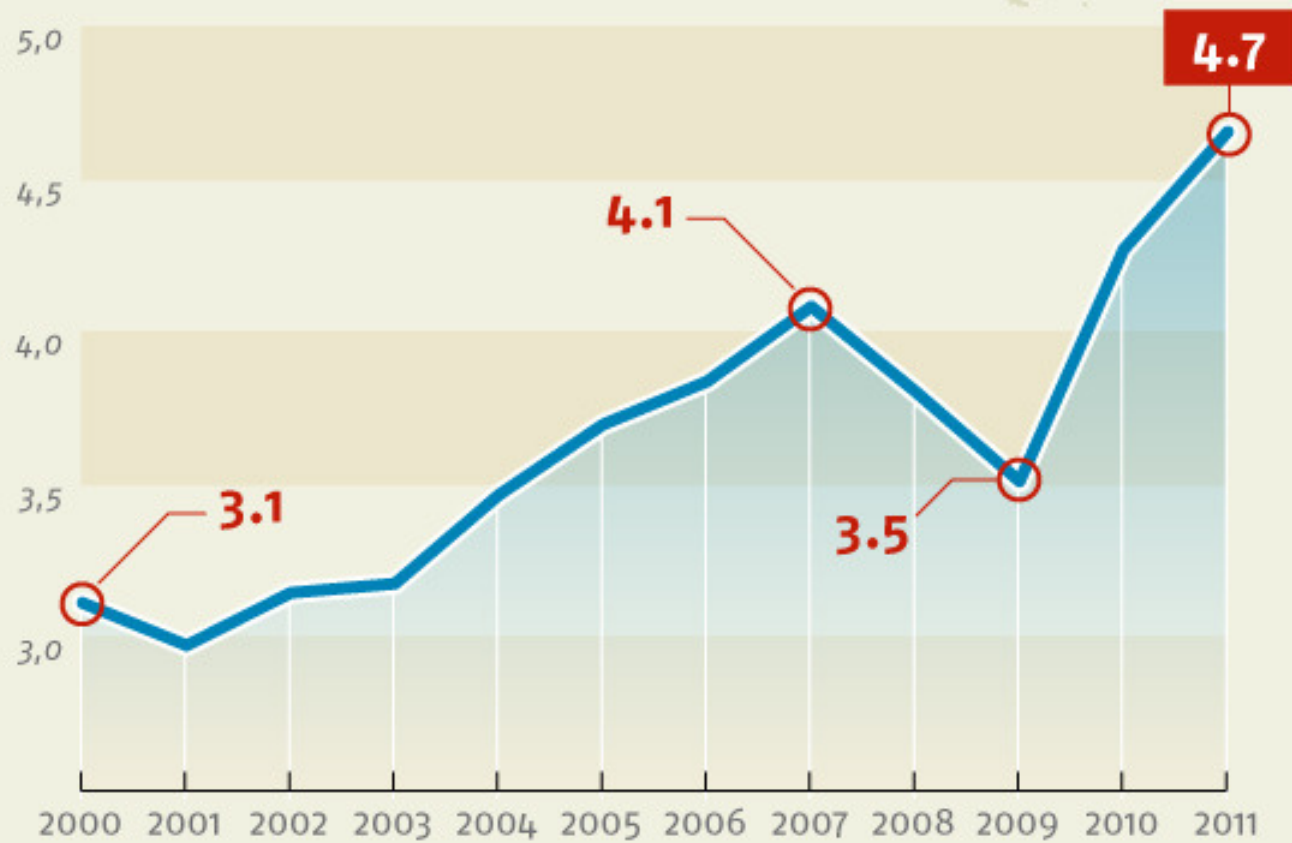

Japan

Million units

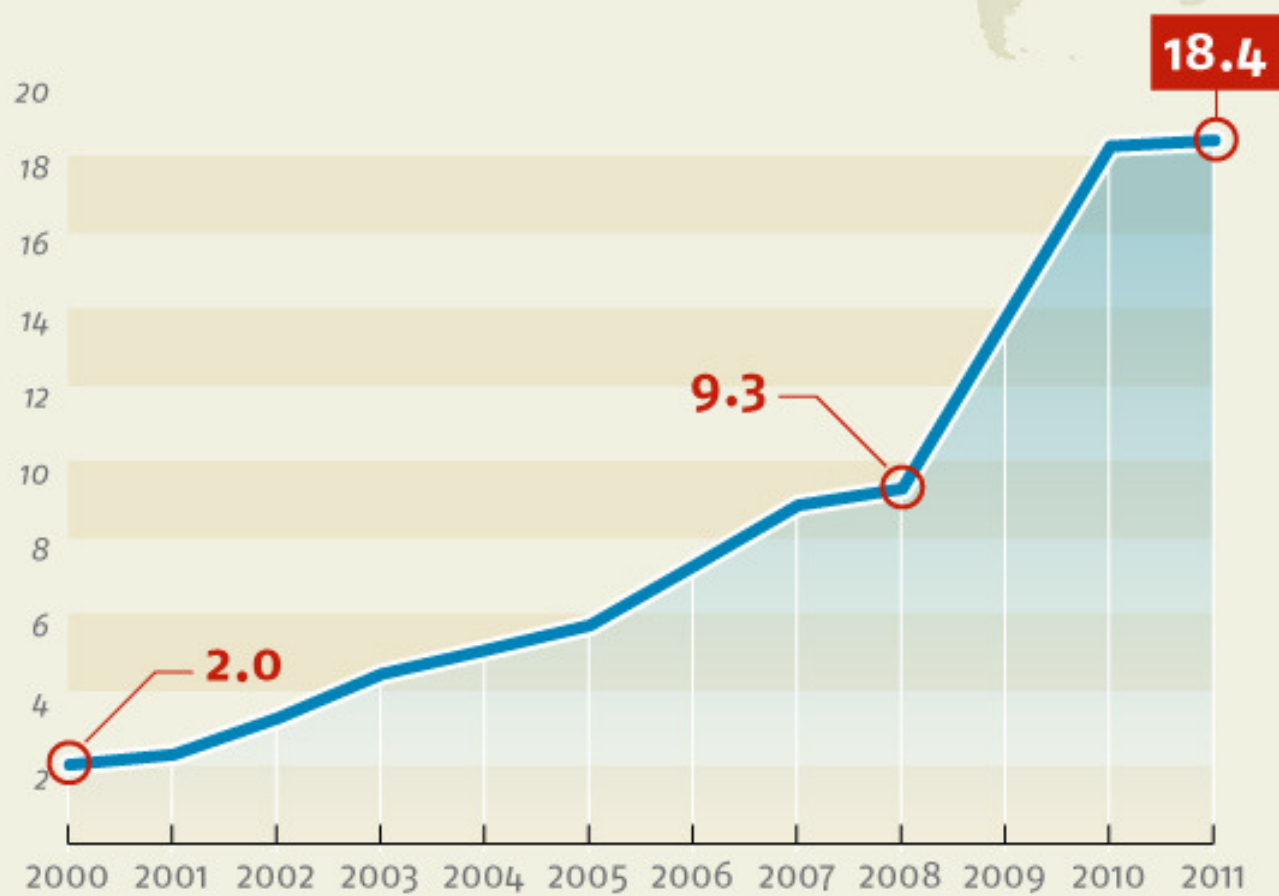

South Korea

Million units

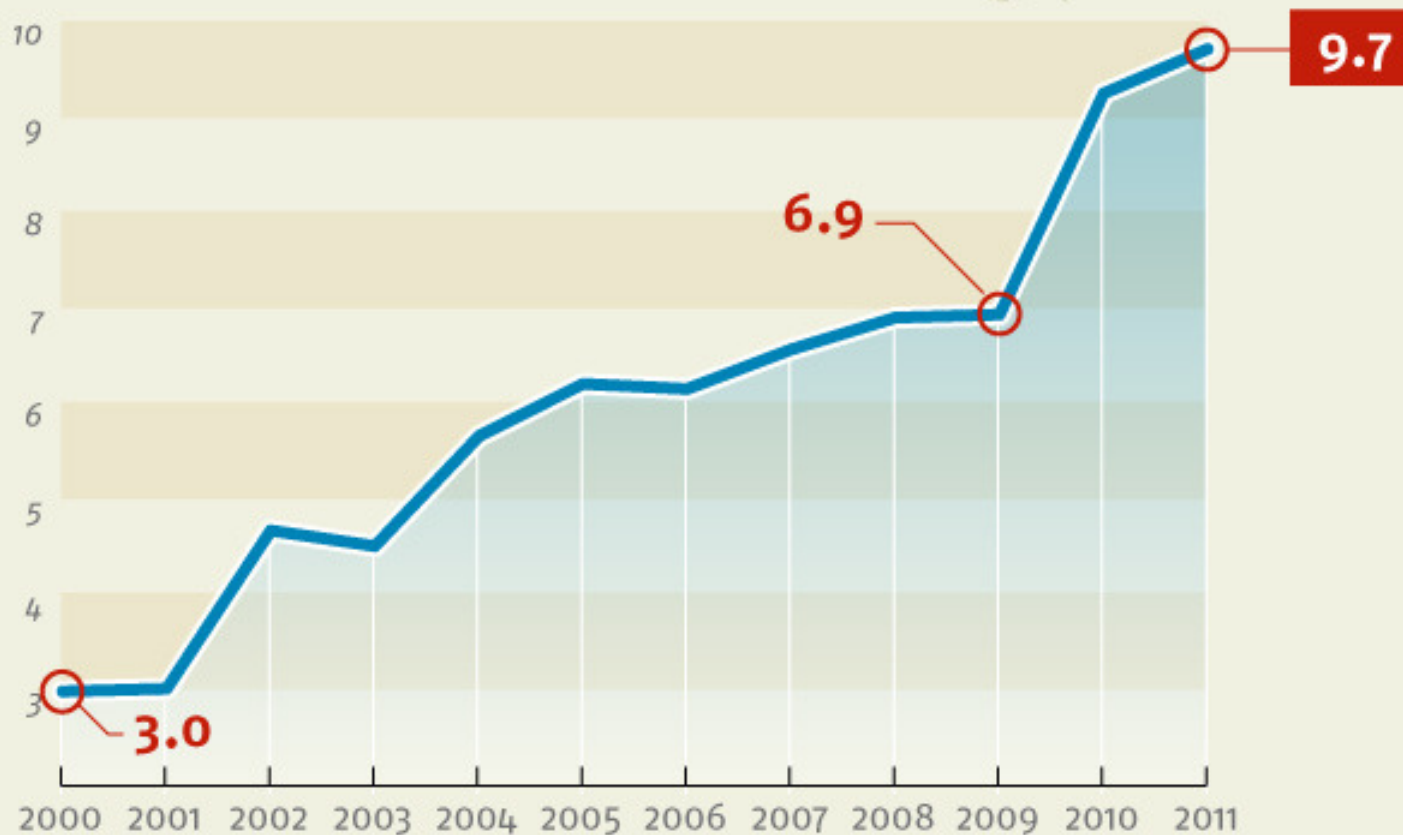

China

Million units

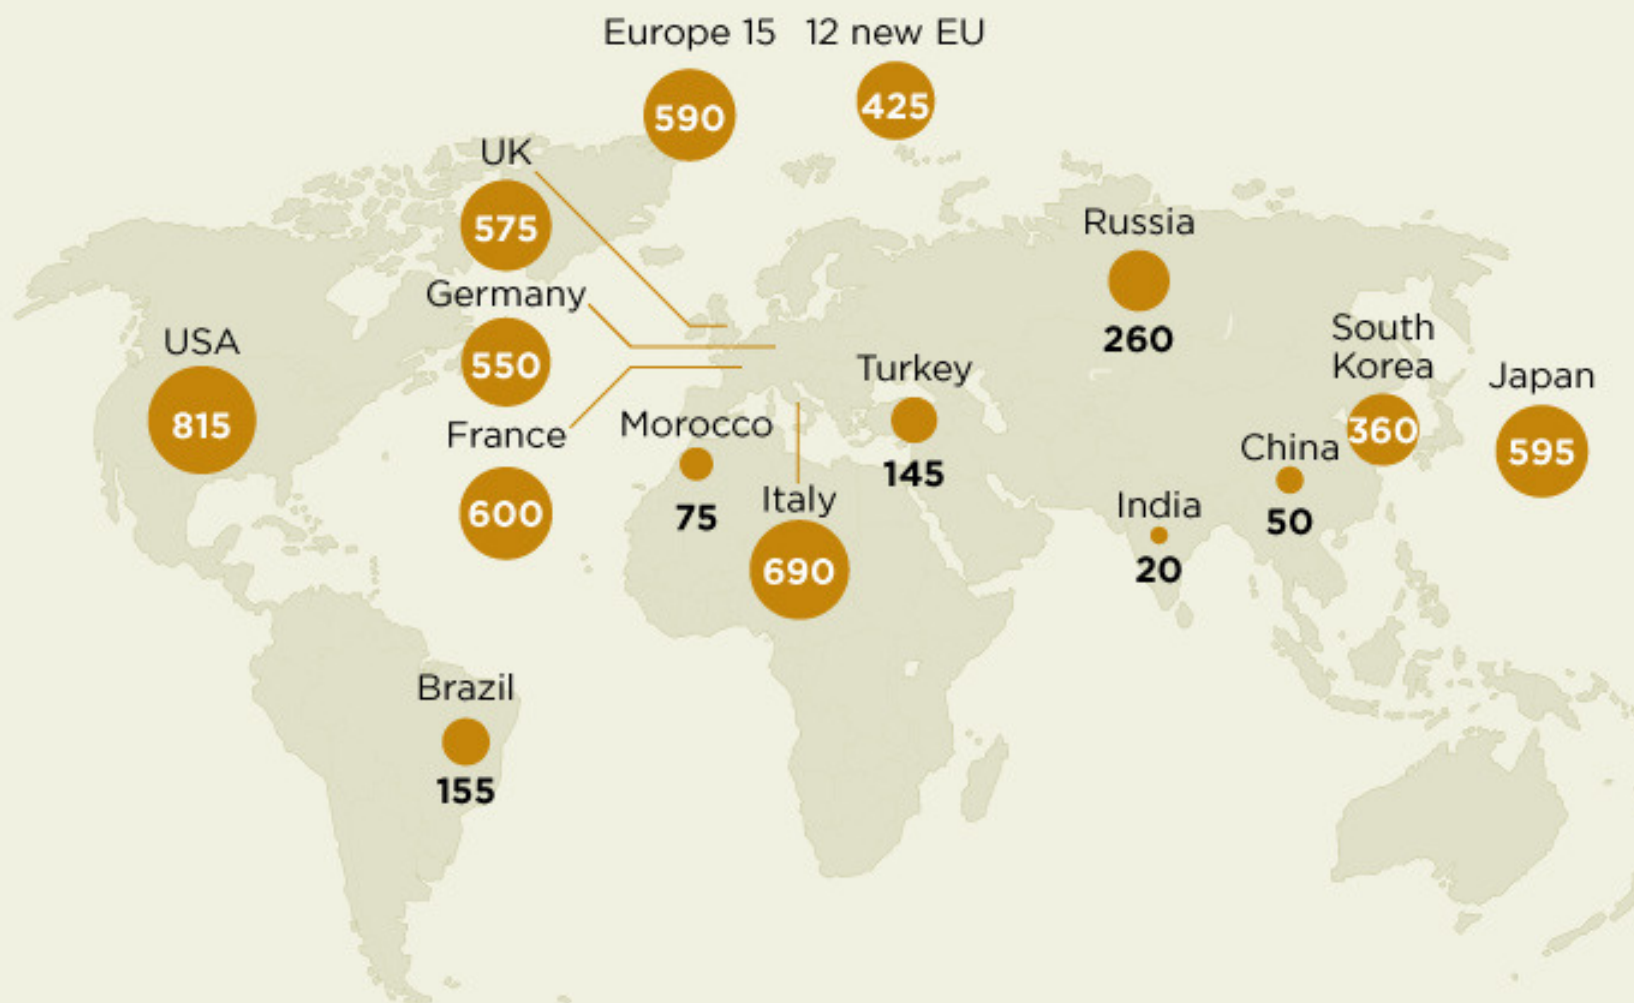

India, other Asian countries, Oceania and Africa

Million units

Cars density 2011

Light vehicles for 1,000 inhabitants (Estimated)

| OICA works in progress

2012 International regulations :

- Pedestrian protection (mid March)
- Advanced Emergency Braking Systems (end of year)
- Lane Departure Warning Systems (end of year)

Development of worldwide harmonised :

- Requirements for safety of Hydrogen and Fuel Cell Vehicles (2012/2013)
- Test cycle for the measurement of exhaust emissions and CO2 emissions of light vehicles
- Requirements for battery electric vehicles

Studies and statistics (end of year) :

- The role of the auto industry in society (figures on employment, fiscal revenues, contribution to GDP, transport modes, etc...)
- Worldwide production and sales figures

Thank you for your attention

Detailed figures available at www.oica.net

